SIX UNSURPASSED AND UNRIVALLED LADY EQUESTRIANS!
Novelty! Talent! and Attraction! Immense Triumphs!

ROBINSON ELDRED, beg leave to announce that they will perform at Camden on Monday Evening and Night the 17th March, 1851, when, in addition to the talent of the old Company, will be presented to the public a number of Stars of the very first magnitude, in the Equestrian and Gymnastical hemisphere.
Madame LOUISE BROWER, the beautiful, the elegant, the graceful, the daring, from Franco's Paris, and Astley's London, will have the honor of appearing.
LAVATER LEE, the World Renowned, and his Infant Prodigies, have been added to this Company, at an immense expense.
FRANCETTO BROWER, the most Inimitable and Original Clown that ever kept an audience in roar, is one of the great attractions of this wonderful Troupe, and is admired by all for his originality and humor.
Master JAMES ROBINSON, will once again be proud to appear before his Southern friends and patrons. He challenged the North, and has appeared in all the principal cities of the State of New York, and been everywhere hailed as the best Equestrian in the whole world!
Miss HENRIETTA ROBINSON will also appear in her graceful and elegant acrobatics—together with a Host of Performers, of first-rate ability.
The Proprietors would direct the public attention to the CHARIOT OF THE SUN! a magnificent work of art, constructed at an enormous expense, and worthy of the attention of all. The Paintings are of the most exquisite character, and have immortalized the artist who executed them. The carving and gilding are of the most massive and beautiful description, and the style and design that of the ancient War Chariots of Rome.
The Chariot is drawn by Twenty Beautiful Cream Horses, caparisoned in the most superb style, and driven by the celebrated DOUGLAS BENHAM, well known as the Prince of Charioteers. It conveys the unsurpassed New York Brass Band, led by Mr. R. Willis, so aptly designated the Apollo of sweet sounds.
Robinson & Eldred pledge themselves that their Company, as now constituted, is the best that ever appeared in Camden.
Doors open 1 o'clock, performance to commence 1 1/2. Admission 50 cents; Children and colored persons half price.
